

The Salvation Army - 12 Months of Giving Ideas

There is such a wonderful outpouring of generosity during the Christmas season, but as we often say at The Salvation Army, “Need Knows No Season!” We’ve created this list of ideas about how you can help keep that spirit of giving alive throughout the year. These ideas are perfect for anyone, including families, church groups, clubs, sports teams or businesses. While these are listed by month, please know we appreciate your support at any time. God bless you!

January	February	March	April	May	June
The Salvation Army loves re-gifting! As you clean out to make room for gifts received at Christmas, remember The Salvation Army Family Stores need your gently used clothing, household goods or cars to support the Anchorage Adult Rehabilitation Program, as well as Salvation Army services in 16 communities throughout Alaska. http://tinyurl.com/akfamilystores	Keep the warmth of the holiday season alive by donating new, adult sized robes, slippers, sweat pants/shirts for clients at The Salvation Army Clitheroe Center, which provides residential substance abuse treatment programs, including detox services, for adults. Drop donations at our office, located at 1015 East 6th Avenue.	Winter coats are on sale! Purchase winter coats for the annual HUGSS & Coats for Kids program now at clearance prices. We’ll store the coats to distribute to school children in August. Coats can be dropped off at The Salvation Army, located at 1700 A Street. Call 375-3575 for more information.	Sponsor the monthly birthday party for families that are homeless staying at The Salvation Army’s McKinnell House. Sponsoring a party includes planning a theme, providing refreshments, decorations and gifts for those with birthdays that month. Sponsorship opportunities are available throughout the year. Please call 276-1609 for more information.	National Salvation Army week is May 7-13! You can make a donation to support our work in small communities like Hoonah, Klawock, Petersburg and Haines. To learn more about The Salvation Army’s ministry in Alaska or make an online donation, visit www.salvationarmy.org/alaska.	Its summer time and that means The Salvation Army King’s Lake Camp is gearing up for our annual summer camp programs. Your donation of $175 will provide a week at camp for a child whose family can’t afford this extra expense. Call The Salvation Army Youth Department at 276-2515 for more details.
July	August	September	October	November	December
With school out for the summer, we see an increased number of families that need food assistance at Salvation Army food pantries. Help Stock Our Shelves by organizing a canned food drive! Contact The Salvation Army Family Services office in Anchorage at 277-2593 or your local Salvation Army for a list of current food needs.	Its time to start thinking about back to school! You can help teen girls at The Salvation Army Booth Memorial Home prepare for school by donating gift cards for school clothes and shoes. Drop off or mail donations to: The Salvation Army Booth Memorial Youth & Family Services, 3600 East 20th Avenue, Anchorage, AK 99508.	The Salvation Army Serendipity Adult Day Services provides day-time support and individualized opportunities for adults with dementia and Alzheimer’s Disease. Donate supplies for their art therapy program, including brushes, acrylic or water color paints, canvases (up to 8”x10”) and frames or mats. Donations can be dropped at 3550 East 20th Avenue.	The Salvation Army Eagle Crest provides transitional housing for both men & women. You can help by donating bus tokens, bus passes or gently used business appropriate clothing to assist our clients seeking employment. Donations can be dropped off at The Salvation Army Eagle Crest, 438 E. 9th Avenue	More than 400 meals are delivered daily to frail seniors by The Salvation Army Older Alaskans Meals on Wheels Program in Anchorage. Please donate gas gift cards to help keep our vans fueled up as they log about 1,000 miles a week! Drop off or mail to: The Salvation Army Older Alaskans Program, 1712 A Street, Anchorage, AK 99501	It’s the Season of Giving! You can help by purchasing a new toy for a child through our Angel Tree Program, volunteering to ring bells at the red kettles, hosting a canned food drive or more. Contact your local Salvation Army to see how you can share the joy of Christmas in your community! www.salvationarmy.org/alaska.